

Our New Department

We have long felt the need of a good line of dress shoes for men and boys, and it being a necessary department in all up-to-the-minute clothing stores, we have added to our most complete line of Gents' Clothing and Furnishings a new line of Elite shoes for our high grade store at

$4.00 to $6.00

Also the celebrated FRANKLIN SHOES at $2.50 to $3.50

We feel that in carrying these lines of shoes, your satisfaction is our best profit, and when we make a sale we have made a friend.

Waterman's
The Store of Quality

"The Real Man's Store."

West Hill

Kelley's Christmas tree men are cutting on the old Kenfield place.

Misses Dora and Caroline Stewart have returned to their work in Montpelier.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Griswold were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Root in Stowe Sunday.

Mrs. Mary McCarty of Essex Junction is a guest of her cousin, Mrs. David Muzzy, and family.

Mrs. Lucy Dyke George of Lincoln, Vt., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Dyke.

A large number of young people attended the husking at the farm of George Jacobs last evening.

Hillmore Zander and daughter, Katherine, of Albany, N. Y., are guests of his brother, Jack Zander, and family.

Miss Dorothy Wisley picked a strawberry plant Friday, Oct. 8, which bore four ripe and four green berries, all fully grown.

Henry Sanders, who has been doing carpenter work in Windsor this summer, has been spending some time with relatives in this part of town.

The dance at Herman Eaton's last Friday evening was attended by nearly sixty couples. Arthur Douglass acted as floor manager and excellent music was furnished by Hadlock's Orchestra. A buffet lunch was served. All report a fine time.

About twenty ladies, neighbors and friends of Miss Violet May, daughter of Mrs. Wren Godfrey, met at the Godfrey home last Friday afternoon, when a miscellaneous shower was given Miss May, in honor of her marriage (which occurred yesterday) to Gerald Hadlock. The afternoon was most delightfully spent, singing, with Mrs. Geo. Robson at the organ, and phonograph music adding much to the pleasure of the occasion. A buffet lunch was served and the bride-to-be was presented with a large number of useful presents, including linen, glass and china.

Jeffersonville

Work on the new road is progressing very rapidly.

Leighton Wood, who has been very ill of typhoid fever, is as comfortable as could be expected.

Richard Thompson, who was threatened with fever, was taken to the Fanny Allen hospital last Tuesday.

Ethan Wilcox and Mrs. C. B. Hapgood left last Monday for Boston, where they are visiting friends and relatives.

Hazel Tucker, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis at the Fanny Allen hospital, is gaining as fast as could be expected.

Read the advertisements in this paper of the live business men.

MORRISVILLE

Regular meeting of Coral chapter, No. 16, Tuesday, Oct. 19.

Leon C. Davis of Belvidere Center was a visitor in town Monday.

The Trumbull Players are to be here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

The condition of Benjamin W. Stewart has not been as favorable for the past few days.

Glenn A. Wilkins left Sunday for Boston, to be present at the world series base ball games.

The 22nd annual meeting of District No. 6, O. E. S., will be held at Hardwick, Friday, Oct. 15.

The condition of Charles Hastings of the Elmore road, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

Miss Alice Marrs of Summer street is in Rochester, Vt., where she is employed at her profession of nurse.

L. B. Boynton will have a car of grapes in Morrisville Friday. He left yesterday for Rochester, N. Y., to purchase apples.

Leland Ring picked a raspberry bush on their land on Randolph road last Saturday, which bore full grown berries, both ripe and green.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard E. Sargent of Island Pond have been guests the past week of the doctor's brother, W. M. Sargent, and family.

A school of instruction in work for the district meeting O. E. S. will be held at Masonic hall, Thursday, October 14, at 7 p. m. A good attendance is requested.

Glenn E. Stone has rented the rooms over Steyens tobacco store and the light and water office and took possession today. The Biddy family have moved to a house on Wabun avenue.

C. M. Fisher is taking his annual vacation from his duties as clerk in the post-office. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher returned last Saturday night from a visit in Craftsbury and other points.

W. S. Cheney, who has been spending several months in Burlington with Mrs. Cheney and daughter, Miss Winnie, returned home the last of the past week. Mrs. Cheney and Miss Cheney came yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Luce left Monday morning for Boston and vicinity, going on the Central Vermont excursion. They will visit their son in Hudson and their daughter in Northboro.

Mrs. William L. Demeritt was a guest from Thursday until Monday of relatives and friends in Montpelier. During her absence her daughter, Mrs. Chas. H. Miller kept house for Mr. Demeritt.

The library will be closed next week Wednesday evening, Thursday and Friday Oct. 20-22, while the librarian attends the joint meeting of the Vermont Library Association and Free State Library Commission at Burlington.

A. A. Niles returned last Friday evening from a few days' visit with Mrs. Niles' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradley, at Thompson's Island, Boston. Mrs. Niles, who accompanied him there, will remain for a longer visit, while gaining strength from her recent illness.

Carroll M. Tenney, a Hyde Park farmer, allows he has a goose that is entitled to the mammoth egg belt. In substantiation of the claim he exhibited an egg in town Monday which measured 9 x 11 inches and weighed three-quarters of a pound. The goose is two years old and this is her second litter.

Methodist Church

Rev. W. T. Best's subject for next Sunday morning will be "Some Photographs."

Last Sunday evening the Epworth League service was ably led by Miss Florence Cornell. Next Sunday evening the meeting will be conducted by Henry Waite; subject, "Can We Capture Politics for God?"

That Piano at $176

is like getting money from home without sending a postage stamp. A large size genuine mahogany case, 7 1/2 octaves, warranted for ten years, sells regularly for $300, but for this month only you can buy it for $176 with stool and scarf and only pay $10 down and $8 a month. If you want a piano write Geo. D. Jarvis & Son, Burlington, Vermont, for free catalogue, giving full particulars.—Adv.

Hunting Season

The hunting season and the fine days of October are with us once more.

A day in the woods now and then is a pleasure and will do you good.

We have a large line of ammunition including many odd calibres in cartridges—a few 41 Swiss rifles, U. S. Knapsacks and the usual line of Belts, Bags, Knives, etc.

Come in and tell us your

WANTS

A. R. CAMPBELL

Optometrist and Jeweler

MORRISVILLE, VERMONT

Hadlock-May

Yesterday afternoon at the Universalist parsonage occurred the marriage of Gerald Hadlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hadlock, of the Stowe road, and Miss Violet May, daughter of Mrs. Wren Godfrey of the West part of Morrisville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. D. Cranmer and the couple were attended by Miss Eva Hadlock, sister of the groom, and Everett May, a brother of the bride. The bride wore blue satin under white chiffon, and carried a bouquet of white flowers, and the bridesmaid was also gowned in blue.

In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, where a about seventy of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hadlock called to extend personally best wishes and congratulations.

The couple was presented with a large number of presents, including cut glass, china, silver, linen, etc. At midnight refreshments were served, which included a wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Hadlock are highly esteemed Morrisville young people and their many friends wish them much happiness in their matrimonial venture.

Results of the Spell Down

The results of the Spell Down in the different schools last week Friday were as follows:

Morrisville—A Grammar, Glenn Prior; B Grammar, Nellie Ingalls; 6th Grade, Harold Downey; 5th Grade, Olivia Raymond; Corners, Alvin George; Cady's Falls, Donald Terrill; S. Randolph, Della Stanciff; S. Laporte, Belle Hilliker, Ruth Hilliker; Elmore road, Walter Whittemore; Plains, Warren Guyett; North Randolph, Delbert Warren; Cole Hill, Carl Bohannon; North Laporte, Hazel Kenfield; Cheney, Inez Curtis; Mud City, Chauncey Morse and Florence Chase; Billings, Linwood Coan.

Stowe—Eighth Grade, Hildegarde Smalley; 7th Grade, Sadie Carey; 6th Grade, Lyle Ashland; South Hollow, Ethel McGibbon and Agnes Towne; Moscow, Agnes Jackman; West Branch, Alva Magoon; Mills, Angie Douglass; Edson Hill, Dan Hurt and Elwood Chapin; Forks, Ada Shonier; West Hill, Gertrude Clark. Elmore—Delano, Stella Phelps; Pond, No school; Bangs, Bertha Ward; Pleasant Valley, Bennie Tuttle and Elwood Tuttle. In last week's report the name should have read Llewellyn Patch, instead of Luella Pratt.

Mrs. Inez Lanpher, who moved a short time ago to the St. Louis house, owned by Oscar Kahn, purchased the Harvey Bennett residence on Elmore street last week and will take possession this week. The consideration was $1450.

BRIGGS' DRUG STORE

These cold nights
suggest the question
Wouldn't it be BEST to have a

Hot Water Bottle

at hand?
We have them,
fresh stock,
guaranteed.

BRIGGS' DRUG STORE
MORRISVILLE, VERMONT

Home and The Boy

Your boy is too young, perhaps, to begin planning his future, but you are already thinking of him as a man. You are wondering what the future holds in store for him. Home influence that creates in the boy the habit of saving makes his future less uncertain.

Let your boy start his Savings Account and have a pass book of his own. ONE DOLLAR WILL DO IT.

We will be glad to meet every boy in Morrisville and the surrounding country.

Four per cent Interest Paid on All Savings Deposits.

The Union Savings Bank and Trust Company

MORRISVILLE, VERMONT

APPLES

Our first car of selected Fall and Winter Apples are due to arrive about Wednesday, the 20th.

Greenings, Baldwins, Pippins Tolmans, etc.

One-half of this car will be in bulk. Get your barrels ready. Also a car at Johnson about the 25th.

H. WAITE & SON.

Morrisville

Congregational Church

Last Sunday Rev. Mr. Baker spoke on the subject, "God's Perfection and Man's."

There was a splendid attendance at Sunday School. We were glad to welcome some new members into the Brotherhood Class. Principal Reynolds takes up with this class a study of the problems of "Christian Citizenship."

At the C. E. meeting, a report of the convention at Poultney was given by the delegate, Miss Florence Stewart. The music by the Boys' Orchestra was of a high order. Prof. Merrill is to be director of the orchestra.

The United Workers held a meeting at the home of Mrs. George P. Drowne on Monday afternoon, and the Unity Class its regular monthly meeting in the church parlor Monday evening.

Tuesday afternoon the members of the Woman's Missionary Society met in the church parlor for the study of the book, "The Child in the Midst."

Next Sunday Rev. E. M. Fuller of Richmond will occupy the pulpit in exchange with the pastor.

Do not forget the date of the Parish Supper, Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 7 o'clock. If this is your church home, we want to meet you at the Parish Supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. C. Cheney left Saturday for Boston, where they attended the World Series games Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Cheney planned to visit relatives for a few days in Connecticut before returning.

BIJOU THEATRE

W. M. JOHNSON, Manager

WEDNESDAY

"Wife for Wife"—Three-reel Broadway Star feature.
"Beautiful Belinda"—Jungle Zoo comedy.

THURSDAY

"The Man Who Did Not Die"—Essary drama.
"Clutch of Circumstances"—Vitascope comedy.

FRIDAY

"Who Pays?"
"Pathe News"

SATURDAY

"The Test"—Edison drama, three reels.

MONDAY

I take pleasure in announcing that I have booked "Quincy Adams Sawyer and Mason's Corner Folks" complete play in motion pictures, presented and talked. Theo. Holman. See posters and small bills. On account of the big expense to run this feature the admission price will be ten and twenty cents. "The village gossip wondered who he was, what he was, what he came for and how long he intended to stay."

TUESDAY

"Million Dollar Mystery"
"Maid of the Mountains"—Biograph drama.
"The New Butler"—Lubin comedy featuring Billy Reese.

How's your Subscription?

GEORGE P. DROWNE

Everybody Pleased With The New Coats

And the big surprise of all is the extremely low prices at which they are marked as coats of similar quality are usually marked from $2 to $5 more. The materials are heavier than usual and the collars are so made that they can be buttoned high at the neck or turned back as desired.

Special Display of Outings This Week

We have just receive an unusually large and attractive assortment of the extra heavy outings which we are going to sell at 10c. Be sure and make your selection while the assortment is at its best.

Splendid Bargains In Leather Bags

We are going to make a special display of leather bags this week and want to call your attention to some extra values which will surely please you. Don't fail to see them.

Headquarters for Ladies And Childrens Shoes

Our assortment of ladies and childrens shoes is so complete that it should command your careful attention as only the dependable kinds can find a place on our shelves. We also make a specialty of shoes for tender feet.

GEO. P. DROWNE

Morrisville,

Vermont